To Whom It May Concern:

I would highly recommend Relev8 to anyone who is in need of expert service. I have worked with Michael Fruchtman for 18 years and Angie Ash for over 4 years and found them to meet deadlines, be passionate about their work and always looking for a satisfied customer. These professionals are extremely good listeners zoning in on just what you are looking for in terms of results.

About a year ago they made customized "Burma Shave" style signs for our bike tour. The riders loved them! "The new signs are great, we need more signs" said one rider. I was very impressed with the product I received to explain to our MS bike riders where the money goes. The posters Relev8 produced were creative and appealing. The bike shops have told us this is what they needed to promote our bike tour. "This is just what I was looking for" said Jill, a bike shop owner.

I have always gotten answers to every e-mail sent by me or my staff. Timely response is important. Minor changes were requested and met with a very positive reaction. I have only the highest regard for this firm. You will be very happy you hired Relev8.

Best Regards
